The Massachusetts Senate and House, meeting in joint session on November 9, 2006, voted to recess before taking up H. 4617, a proposed constitutional amendment reaffirming marriage as the union between one man and one woman. The motion to recess the Constitutional Convention until Tuesday, January 2nd at 2 pm, the last day of the 2005-2006 legislative session, carried by a vote of 109 to 87, with one legislator not voting, and three seats vacant. Y = voted in favor of recessing without voting on the Marriage Amendment; N = voted against a recess; X = Did not vote. The tallies are listed separately by House and Senate, and by Statewide and by Diocese. At the end is a listing of those who switched sides from a recess vote taken on July 12th.
